IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL CUSTOMERS

Strike in Hong Kong Container Terminal - Update

The strike action at the Kwai Tsing shipping terminal in Hong Kong is still occurring, along with further terminal workers joining the strike. The Hong Kong government has tried to intervene without any success thus far.

This situation is now having a flow on effect with vessel movements into the port. Some vessels are now skipping Hong Kong, whilst others are changing their port rotation to accommodate the situation. In some instances, buyers are starting to change their trading terms to FOB Shenzhen as opposed to FOB Hong Kong.

Attached is a notice from ANL outlining their planned vessel movements. As stressed in the notice, this is only a plan at this stage as it may change depending on the situation at the terminal.

We will continue to closely monitor the situation and will provide updates as they come to hand.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact your account representative.

Yours faithfully,
