IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL CUSTOMERS

Ningbo Port Strike – FCL & LCL

ADM Global has been advised of a serious truck drivers strike in Ningbo which started on 19th August and is showing no signs of settling. Many drivers have blocked the depots and terminals and police have been called in to maintain order at the port.

The strike may cause delays to FCL and LCL shipments as there is major congestion at the terminal and will possibly continue in the coming weeks.

Shipping lines have temporarily cancelled some vessels calling into Ningbo port and shippers with dock receipts can't get empty containers from the yards. As a result our Ningbo office has advised shippers that urgent shipments might need to be transferred to Shanghai.

Please refer to attached photos.

Your customer service representative will keep you updated if any of your shipments will be directly affected by this.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact your account or customer service representative.

Yours faithfully,
