Changes to the import Packing Declaration

Dear Clients

Please be advised that the Department of Fisheries and Forestry (DAFF) have announced changes to the existing import Packing Declaration.

Changes include the removal of the Bark Statement and the FCL/LCL indicator requirement, along with other wording and format changes, and apply to both the standard Packing Declaration, and the annual Packing Declaration.

Please go to the FORMS section of our website (www.admglobal.com.au) to find copies of the new standard Packing Declaration, the new annual Packing Declaration.

The current Declaration formats can still be used, however we anticipate that DAFF will force the use of the new declarations at some stage in 2013. Therefore, please ask your suppliers to switch to the new format as soon as possible to avoid any potential issues in the new year.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact your account representative.

Yours faithfully,
