Fremantle Port Strikes - UPDATE

Dear Client

Further to the newsletter on 4th December relating to Fremantle Port strikes:

Fremantle Ports have advised that the Maritime Union of Australia has withdrawn proposed action for today and tomorrow, however the MUA has issued notice they will add 2 days to their 6-day strike starting this Sunday.

As such, the proposed strike will now run over 8 days, starting Sunday 9th at 5:30pm and finishing Monday 17th December at 5:30am.

Fremantle Ports is still working with the MUA to avoid any strike action.

Again, if the strike goes ahead, a backlog of containerised cargo will be expected at Fremantle port.

As Fremantle port acts as 'first stop' on many shipping routes to Australia, this backlog could delay the arrival of these vessels into all other main ports in Australia.

ADM Global will keep you updated as further news comes to hand.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact your account representative.

Yours faithfully,
ADM GLOBAL PTY. LTD.,
